Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

ST. RITA CHURCH

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome, worship, inspire, and serve with love.

From the Desk of Father Tim . . .

Dear Friends,

We are well into our Catholic Ministries Appeal efforts and the response has been very encouraging. As I write this, 268 households have made the choice to participate in the CMA and ten percent of you have chosen to make your contribution as a pledge to be fulfilled between now and next May. Many choose this path because it allows them to contribute more to the CMA and I appreciate it.

With the help of one another, we will complete our responsibility for the CMA before Christmas!

Raising the needed funds is not the only measure of our success – the participation of more households, at whatever amount, is also key.

*"Our CMA Contribution has been made!
Happy to be able to contribute to this worthy cause!" – a parishioner*

If you have not yet participated, please prayerfully consider what you can do and join in the support and success of this endeavor! Thank you!

Peace,
Fr. Tim

Amen.

Reflections on Readings for the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"Jesus, Remember Me When You Come Into Your Kingdom"

During this last Sunday of our liturgical year (before we begin anew with the Advent season), we are reminded of the universal sovereignty of our Lord, Jesus.

This feast was commissioned by Pope Pius XI just after World War I, in a time of increasing secularity in the world. In his encyclical Quas Primas, Pope Pius XI spoke his firm hope that this feast "may hasten the return of society to our loving savior."

In our first reading (2 Samuel 5:1-3), we hear the story of the anointing of King David by the twelve tribes of Israel. David was the forebearer and precursor of Christ, the King. It was to David that God spoke this covenant, "*I will raise up your descendant after you, who will come forth from you, and I will establish His kingdom. He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of His kingdom
forever.*" (2 Samuel 7:12-13)

In our Epistle reading (Colossians 1:12-20), St. Paul offers a brief prayer of thanksgiving to the Father for our inheritance in the kingdom of His beloved son.
Paul then proceeds to describe the sovereignty and majesty of our King, Jesus Christ. He is the "Image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation."

In our Gospel reading (Luke 23:35-43), we hear of the Son of David, a completely different kind of King.
This King is hung on a cross, mocked, reviled and spit upon. This is a King who reigns from the throne of the cross, with humility, compassion and love. This King has power no other earthly king could ever have, the power to save souls. In today's Gospel, the criminal on the cross next to Jesus acknowledged his sins and simply asked Jesus, "remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus' response was forgiveness and eternal salvation. This is similar to what happens in every Sacrament of Reconciliation as we acknowledge our sins and ask Jesus for forgiveness.
Jesus' response is love, forgiveness and eternal salvation.

We are reminded in this Feast of Christ the King that our Jesus is not only King of Catholics, or King of Christians, He is King of all creation - from the beginning of time to the end of time and beyond.
May we proclaim His sovereignty with our daily lives.

LINEN CLEANING: NOVEMBER 23 CAROL SCIOLINO

Over the Jubilee Year,
we will explore the
themes of Hope,
Pilgrimage, and Jubilee,
always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

In the midst of his crucifixion, Jesus reminds the sinner at his side that he is loved and will be saved. He takes a moment from the turmoil to reach out, even when his hands are unable to leave the cross and give the thief comfort. That is the definition of jubilee!

Pondering Point

When have you felt Jesus' comfort in the midst of turmoil and suffering?

November 22-23
Jubilee of Choirs

*Since the time of David, your people have sung Psalms to you. May those who lift their voices in song do so in your praise, raising the spirits and hearts of others. And may those who offer music for your worship always do so with humility and in service to your people.
Amen.*

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY YARN REQUEST

Prayer shawl members are donating their love and time, but also their money to make prayer shawls, lap robes, and baptism blankets.

They purchase all the yarn themselves. Yarn is getting more and more expensive and they would be very appreciative to have able parishioners donate yarn for the robes, shawls, and blankets.

The preferred yarn brands are "Red Heart, Caron, and Big Twist".

Any color for the prayer shawls.

(To complete a whole shawl, they would need at least two skeins.)

Pure White for the baptism blankets
(2 skeins per blanket).

A box for yarn will be in the Greeting Area.

THANK YOU in advance for your generosity.

Congratulations and Welcome to the newest members of our parish family who were baptized this weekend:

Paisley Emerson Noto

Please Remember in Prayer our parishioners and those connected with our parish who have recently died, especially:

Judith Lawyer

Where Faith and Knowledge Meet

SRS students filled boxes with CANDY & CARDS for Operation Share Joy – our service project to send candy and handmade cards of thanks to deployed soldiers in Japan, Romania, and Germany through the work of Blue Star Mothers ROC. We thank our students for sharing their JOY and thank all of the members of the military – past and present – for their service to our country.

Our Fifth Graders led a beautiful Veterans Day Prayer Service. Master Sergeant Eric Smith shared his experiences with our students in a touching tribute.

Master Sergeant Smith holds a special connection to our school as an SRS alumnus and a current SRS PreK parent. We were honored to have him, along with many other Veterans, join us for this special service. We are deeply thankful for all of the brave men and women who have selflessly served our country.
